

DEMONSTRATIONS OF IRISH LABOR AGAINST MILITARISM

Three Gigantic Meetings Followed the 24 Hour Strike—There Were No Disorders With the Strike—Bogus placards Were Posted Throughout Dublin Proclaiming an Irish Workers' Republic—In Cork a Resolution Was Passed Pledging Support of Any Action Necessary to End Militarism—People Are Determined That Armed Terrorism Should Cease.

Dublin, April 24 (AP) — The A. P. L. and Twenty-four hour strike terminated at 9 o'clock tonight with three gigantic demonstrations in the city. The demonstrators were laborers protesting against the Irish labor law. There were no disorders in connection with the demonstrations. The demonstrators were by the parade route posted throughout the city maintaining an Irish workers' republic. The demonstrators proved that the problem was an Irish one.

The object of this proclamation was to win support for the labor party from the laboring classes of the emigrants by assuring that the labor party engineered the strike and that the strike was not a strike with no sympathy of the laboring class. Men and women of all classes, however, were invited to the meeting, and on this evening the hall was so successful that the speaker, Mr. J. J. O'Brien, was obliged to adjourn the meeting, that at 8 o'clock he returned to the hall and found the place so packed that he was obliged to adjourn the meeting to the 24th inst. The object of the meeting was to show the strength of the labor party and to show the strength of the labor party for unity in the strike.

What was the result of the meeting? The result was that the laboring class was not in sympathy with the strike against the labor party. The result was that the laboring class was not in sympathy with the strike against the labor party.

TO CALL A MEETING OF THE

London, April 14.—(By The A. P.)—The Bank of England is to call a meeting of the central banks of the world, pursuant to the decision of the financial representatives at the Genoa conference, and will invite the Federal Reserve banks of the United States to participate, says the Star today, quoting Sir Robert Horne, who has just returned from Genoa. The newspaper adds that there is reason to believe that America will consent to join this conference.
